Reflection

Jesus' commandment is that His disciples love one another, even to the point of laying down their lives, if necessary. What gifts of myself-my skills and talents, my time and resources-will best demonstrate my love for God's people?

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who seek out new opportunities to share their gifts to serve others through parish ministries such as Baptismal Preparation.

Attendance for the weekend of 5/5-6 was 369 (total number of registered families= 829.)

Prayer of the Week:

“Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless our mother. Let the example of her faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, her family, may honor her always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.”

“Dear God,

What does it mean you are a jealous God? I thought you had everything.” -Jane

From the desk of Pastoral Associate for Administration

We are starting up a new prayer chain for our parish and I would like to have some volunteers that are willing to give us their e-mail. Upon request of a prayer you will be forwarded the prayer request and asked to pray for the individual (s) that are listed. This is a great way to be involved in a ministry that only asks for prayers. Please contact me with your information and “Thank You” in advance for making a difference in someone’s life.

My Dear Parishioners,

Once again thank you for a wonderful catechetical year here at St. Patrick’s. It has been a fulfilling year for me because I had the opportunity to work with so many people giving of their time and talent for the benefit of so many different ministries.

Once again, my thanks goes out to all who in any way left an impression on our children and families as they prepared for the reception of the sacraments and catechetical instruction.

My thanks goes out to all who took part in any way in decorating our church for Christmas, Holy Week and Easter. I hope you were pleased with the results. St. Patrick’s is a beautiful church and so many people turned out this year to help enhance our worship space for these special occasions.

All of our children who have received First Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation had their names printed in last week’s bulletin. Congratulations to them, their teachers, and to their families. Ann Marie Bradt will be our final first communicant at the end of May. Congratulations to her and her family.

If you missed Registration Day for Faith Formation for next year, a mailing will go out in several weeks with instructions, etc. Please be certain to return the applications with updated information as soon as possible so that plans, catechists, books, and supplies can be ordered. We will be in need of some catechists, so if you have an interest please contact Brother Ron at 756-3145.

May God Bless you Always,

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD
